College offers a wide choice of courses in all disciplines – Humanities, Science and Commerce apart from certificate and diploma courses.

About the Webinar

India has encountered a variety of epidemics and pandemics like influenza, cholera, and dengue throughout history. We have been able to eradicate some, but many diseases still continue to pose a threat to the community. Novel corona virus has been declared as Pandemic by World Health Organisation (WHO) and the whole world is in a situation of massive upheaval due to COVID-19. In this state, it is important to enhance research in the area of COVID-19 pandemic.
